no condition or combination of conditions will assure the safety of the community based upon the unrebutted presumption. Alternatively, the court finds the same standard has been met apart from the presumption based upon defendant's history of violence including his most recent conduct leading to two outstanding PPO's and his current mental difficulties.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

Defendant also had 9 AWOLS while in the Army and committed a felony offense in the process of receiving a general (rather than honorable) discharge. There was some testimony defendant has worked as an enforcer for a loan sharking operation.

It appears defendant suffered a closed head injury in March 2008. In July 2008, he was admitted to inpatient mental health treatment in Lansing, where he remained hospitalized 1 1/2 months and was released approximately one week prior to appearing in this court. He was diagnosed as bipolar and schizophrenic, and now takes five medications to address those problems.

Defendant has smoked marijuana from the age of 15 until approximately three years ago. Approximately seven years ago he began using cocaine three times weekly, most recently in January 2008.
